Modified Journey Connection #11 2021

Mission Statement of Immanuel Church

To be and to make Spirit-filled followers of Christ who shine the light of God's love to the world.

YES...WELCOME TO IMMANUEL CHURCH,
EVEN THOUGH WE ARE CURRENTLY NOT GATHERING!

We at Immanuel are on a joyful journey – with Jesus...regardless of the current situation, – to disclose His presence in the world...especially during this challenging time, - and His love for all people...whether they are acting irrationally or not. With humility, we invite everyone to join us - of course respectfully keeping your distance, regardless of their relationship with Jesus, and even if they doubt His reality; together we will get through this COVID-19 pandemic! And, we invite everyone to join us, regardless of race, culture, age, sexual orientation, family status, or the brokenness of their lives. Yes, even the closet hoarders are welcome! On this journey there are no judgments – just Jesus. Whoever you are, you are welcome to join us in Spirit!

If you desire a calming conversation during this time of hysteria or could use a peaceful prayer while wrestling with isolation, please contact Pastor Rich or Jenny Landowski at 262-334-2886. You could also leave us an email message at pastor@immanuelwestbend.org or director@immanuelwestbend.org ; we would welcome a time to connect with you!

CHRIST IS RISEN! HE HAS RISEN INDEED!

A word, or two, from our Pastor

Dear Members and Friends of Immanuel,

It is my sincere hope that this Lenten season continues to be a time of spiritual renewal and refreshment as we accompany Jesus on his journey to the cross. For me personally, our Wednesday prayer services have been a unique and encouraging source of inspiration. As well, the gift of the Lenten devotional brought a unique blessing from the mouth of a child. Inserted in my devotional was a beautiful picture of our church and these profound words: "God loves you so so so much that I can't say how much love God has for you." Wow! This brought me to tears. Thank you Rowan for these words. (And thanks to all those who participated in creating a note of personal blessing to those who received the devotionals.)

My next blood work is on March 17, so I should have some new information available in my next update. As of now, I feel good. Thanks so much for your continued concern and prayers. Your support and love mean so much to me in this trying time. May God richly bless you as we all continue to strive together to walk with Christ!

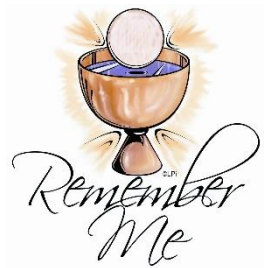

Grace and peace,

Rich

Congregational Meeting

Sunday, March 21st at 10:00am
Immanuel's Annual Meeting will be conducted via Zoom on Sunday morning, March 21st at 10:00am with members of our leadership as your hosts. There will also be a phone number to call if you would prefer to use that method. You will receive an email/ mailing with all the information you need for the meeting, as well as an explanation on how to participate.

On behalf of our President...

An update from Immanuel's Lay Leadership

March Journey Connection

Greetings from Immanuel's leadership team. As I said last month spring is in the air. And, as winter retreats life is returning to the land. Not only is life returning, but hope is returning as COVID numbers fall, vaccination options increase and the number of people vaccinated continues to rise. Hope now is in the air. With all this in mind the work of Immanuel continues. Plans are being made for a long-delayed Spring Annual Meeting in order for the congregation to attend to necessary church business. This meeting will be conducted using a virtual format in order to keep participants safe. It is an experiment in trying to bring Immanuel's business back to a normal timeline. The delayed items to be considered would include:

- an update on the physical structure
- status on re-entry to worship
- approving the recommended budget for 2021
- receive the 2020 Annual Report
- review Immanuel's financial reports
- act on a plan to secure our finances
- election of deacons and elders

While the list may appear long some of the items are informational. The hiatus in group meetings has resulted in more business items than normal being on the agenda. A number of the financial items need congregational approval so the business of the church can go forward. Also, the terms of a number of consistory members are coming to an end and they must be replaced. The departing members have served during a unique time in church governance. It would be our hope to have all the above items discussed and approved so the new consistory is not faced with a transitional mess. More information on this meeting will be forthcoming.

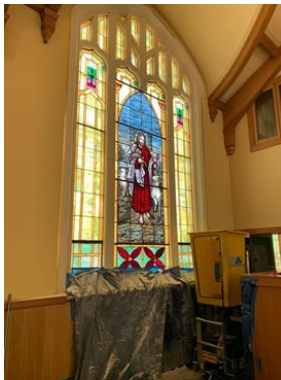

As my term on Consistory is coming to end this will be my last message to you. A new president must be elected. The two terms, to say the least, have been interesting and challenging. Starting with the conducting of church governance in a normal fashion to having to figure out how to conduct it while keeping all members safe. The staff over this year worked long and hard to keep worship, all areas of faith works, missions and the business of Immanuel moving forward. It was not easy, and the way was not always clear, but they persevered, and we continued. My only hope is that no matter what happened, you recognized that your leadership was trying to do the best for Immanuel by being supportive of all efforts to keep us together and moving forward in difficult times. If there were any failures, it was my fault for not being a better president, for everyone else was working and leading as hard as they could to maintain Immanuel as best as they. I believe Immanuel is in good shape when re-entry to corporate worship takes place. My only regret is I will not be president when that occurs for I feel a great sense of responsibility for leading us into exile from sanctuary worship. Please be aware leadership made that decision for the safety of all. If anyone feels as though leadership has let you down, it was me who let you down and I take full responsibility. My parting wish is we move forward on Immanuel's journey to make all joyful followers of Christ.

Property Update

We are excited to say that with the replenished money in the Building Fund, after receiving the Insurance Settlement from the flooding, we are now able to start tackling some of the other much needed projects. First on the list...tending to plaster issues. Thank you to all who have donated to, and continue to support our Building Fund.

Wacky Tacky Talent Show

Virtual Style

Immanuel Church is sponsoring a Virtual Talent Show in support of its ministries and is looking for acts to be prerecorded.

Singing, Dancing, Comical, Magical, Poetic, Dramatic...we'd welcome just about any kind of talent you'd be willing to share!

Please provide the following information to us via email or stop by church to fill out a form. Johanna will then be in touch with you to make arrangements for videotaping your act.

~Participant(s) Name(s)

~Type of Act

~Name of Song or Act

~Will you need an accompanist?

~List any props that you may need (such as piano, microphone, music stand, etc.)

As you know, typically there are Blanket Breaks within the program when we collect your donations, however since this will be virtual, we don't recommend you throwing coins at your tv screen. Rather, start saving your change now and be ready to drop your bounty off at church after the show. Of course, checks or online payments would also be accepted.

ITALIAN DINNER

In conjunction with the Wacky Tacky Talent Show, staying as close to tradition as possible, an Italian Dinner will be available for your in-home dining pleasure while you watch the show!

Small pan - $10

Large pan - $20

also included are breadsticks and sweet treats.

Reserve your order by April 1st.

Prepayment required when you place your order; cash or checks payable to Immanuel Church.

You can either mail in your order or drop it off at the church office.

Meals can be picked up at church on Saturday, April 24th from 9am-noon, or we'd be more than happy to deliver it to your home; please specify when placing your order.

For assistance, please contact Johanna in the main office. 262-334-2886

Happy Easter!

The Easter story can be a bit confusing to young children. If you have walked through store aisles recently, you've seen many reminders that Easter is coming. What isn't so obvious is that, for Christians, Easter is truly the most significant day of the year.

At the store we find:

- baskets and eggs as the symbols of Easter, instead of a cross and an empty tomb
- a bunny that brings candy instead of a Savior who brings life

Is it any wonder that some children are more excited about the coming of the Easter Bunny than about the coming of God's kingdom? We spend many days on egg-coloring and baskets but focus on Jesus Christ's death and resurrection for only one hour on Sunday morning. Many parents, however, are looking for ways to make the true significance of Easter a reality to their children. Well, here's the good news!

Bunnies, eggs, baskets and more can become tools that parents use to bring a greater understanding of the message of Easter. With just a little creativity, all these symbols that often replace the real significance of Easter can be the very things that make the holiday full and rich with spiritual meaning.

Tell the Story of Easter with Eggs

Instead of merely coloring eggs this Easter, why not use the eggs to tell the story of God's love and forgiveness?

- Before you hide the eggs or put them in baskets, encircle each one with a colored strip of paper (or place the strip inside plastic eggs) that tells one small part of the Easter story. When the eggs have been found, the children must unscramble the story and put it in the right order.

- Instead of decorating the eggs with dye, or in addition to dyeing them, write one attribute of Jesus on each egg. You can do this by writing on the egg with a crayon before you put it in the dye. If you are using plastic eggs, you can write with a permanent marker or paint pen.
- Send kids on a hunt for the eggs that have Jesus' attributes written on them. Instead of just discovering eggs, they will be discovering the wonderful things that make Jesus so special. If the eggs are plastic, fill them with treats to remember how sweet the life of Jesus really is.
- Dye eggs in certain colors and use them to tell the story of salvation.

Teach them about Jesus by talking about what a real Easter Bunny is

Use a rabbit picture, a stuffed bunny or even a real one (if you are adventurous) to teach some of the characteristics of Jesus that we should all try to have. By adding a Bible verse to each quality, you will create a true Easter Bunny.

Real Easter bunnies:

- are white as snow because Jesus takes all sin away (Isaiah 1:18b).
- are gentle, kind-hearted and forgiving (Ephesians 4:32).
- have big ears that are quick to listen (James 1:19).
- have big eyes to look carefully and choose what is good (1 Thessalonians 5:21).
- have no voice for complaining or arguing (Philippians 2:13).
- are quiet in prayer, but hop with thanksgiving and rejoicing (Philippians 4:4-6).
- have big feet to go tell others about Jesus so they can be like Easter bunnies, too (Matthew 28: 19-20).
- eat what is healthy by filling up on God's word every day (Psalm 119:11).

The Easter Story: Defining the Terms

We sometimes forget that our children don't understand everything that is being said and done around them. Often we take for granted that they understand things we have not explained.

The Easter story, while beautiful, can be very confusing to children when we don't take time to simplify the story in a way they can understand. An explanation of some big words can help. For very young children, omitting the harder words all together may reduce confusion.

Explain to your kids what these terms mean:

- Disciples — Jesus' closest friends
- Pharisees and religious leaders — the people who were not teaching the truth about God
- Arrested — Guards took Jesus and would not let him go.
- Sanhedrin or Court — Leaders all got together and decided that Jesus should be punished for telling the people that He was God's Son.
- Righteous — Jesus told only the truth and did everything God wanted Him to do.
- Condemned to death — Rulers announced that Jesus would have to die.
- Crucified — They nailed His hands and feet onto a big wooden cross and left Him hanging on it until He died.
- Tomb — a special place, like a small cave, where Jesus' body was laid after He died
- Resurrection — Even though Jesus had been dead for three days, God made Him come back alive so His friends would know that Jesus really is God's Son.

I wish you all a very blessed Easter!

Rachel

CONFIRMATION

Each week in Confirmation we have a different topic that we discuss. One of them was “Am I Normal?” We talked about what is or who is normal and how God created us all in a unique way to be different from each other. Another topic was “God Talk”; this was about how we pray and talk to God. We discussed how sometimes our prayers are answered how we wanted them to be and other times not exactly how we were hoping. We also talked about “Following the Leader”. We shared our thoughts on what it is to be a good or bad leader and how it can affect your life, as well as if anyone can be a leader or just some people.

Once again, I would like to say, these four young youth are amazing! They are learning and expanding their minds in God’s love and their faith. Please continue to keep Eliana, Kathryn, Chassidy, and Noah in your prayers as they grow in their relationship with Christ.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact me.

After three weeks watching the highly informative documentary 13th, we (SHINE), will be starting the very difficult task of talking about racism and prejudice. As Christians, we have to realize that these are not new topics, but instead are topics that we need to address and learn how we can best show God's love to ALL of his people.

As usual, we meet every Tuesday from 6-7 downstairs. We welcome visitors even if you have never been to one of our meetings.

"April Awareness"

How is it possible to provide 450 impoverished children with a free education??

By the Grace of God and through Joyful Journey's Student Sponsorship Program!!

Immanuel Church's India Ministry is doing amazing things for the people in the village of Madhavapatnam, and you're invited to help us continue these good works!

As we move forward as faithful stewards of this mission, striving to continue what has already grown to be a vital part of empowering this community, we invite you to prayerfully consider how you can assist in our efforts. It may be your time to support a child's education at the Marshall School or maybe even take on another student. Or how about talking to your coworkers, friends, and relatives about this ministry and encouraging them to help make a difference in a child's life. Currently 15% of our sponsors are "friends and family" of Immanuel Church members.

$20 a month can change a life in India and don't be surprised if it changes yours as well!!

The goal of the India Task Force is to have 25 more children
sponsored by the end of April.

INDIA NEWS

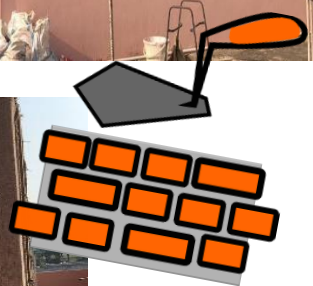

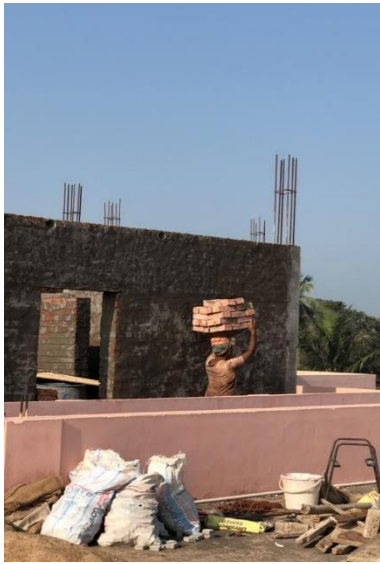

Boy's Dorm

With an initial heartfelt financial jumpstart of a faithful member, subsequent generous donations, and most importantly the blessing of God, a dorm is being erected for the boys in the Joyful Journeys Hostel in Madhavapatnam India! We couldn't be more excited about this latest addition, but more so was the elation in the young child's voice when he exclaimed to Novahu "THIS, is going to be MY new home?!?!!" 😊 Coming from someone who has lived in the confines of a palm frond hut prior to being admitted into the hostel, you can imagine the gratitude he must be feeling.

$10,00 down...$15,000 more to go!

If you are interested in contributing to the completion of this project, you may do so online through Joyful Journeys Website <https://joyfuljourneys-inc.org/>, or send a check made out to Joyful Journeys. Please be sure to designate your donation to: Boys Dorm.

Dear siblings in Christ,

The sun is shining, the temperatures are rising, the daylight is lengthening and spring is surely on the way! Praise God, from whom these blessings flow! I greet you in a Lenten spirit of longing as we continue to endure this ongoing pandemic. Yet with rising hopes and emerging plans, we begin to set our sights on a time of transitioning to in-person gatherings. Perhaps sometime over the summer months, as vaccinations become widespread and readily available, we will return to our sanctuaries for worship! It is tempting to look at the current data and want to leap too quickly. I urge a little more patience.

Back when Trinn and I were raising teenagers, I always worried a bit about adolescent decision making, especially given the fact that I pushed a few limits in my own coming of age. So, when our teens would head out the door for a night of fun, I told them I loved them and often admonished them by saying, PLEASE STAY MEASURED. Funny how I never thought they heard my words, let alone understood them. But now – as twenty-somethings – they love to tease me about how often I repeated that goofy phrase!

The life of faith invariably invites us to take some big, healthy risks . . . to push the arc of justice a bit further, to launch a radical ministry initiative, to chase a personal dream, to open a brand new chapter in life. If we simply trust that God is with us, we'll be alright, we often reckon. But such decisions are neither foolish impulses nor "blind faith" leaps. They involve some reasoning as well, and a good deal of internal calculating as to the possible rewards and consequences. Look no further than Jesus himself, as he turned resolutely toward Jerusalem and began his final journey. In an extraordinary act of selfless love, he chose to offer the gift of grace at the expense of his very life. In ways large and small, you and I are invited to share this same selfless love as a gift of grace to the world.

I want to encourage you to continue to “stay measured” when it comes to re-gathering. Despite the encouraging statistics, the news this morning warns us that there is strong potential for another spike in new COVID cases if we choose to ignore the four key protocols: 1) wear masks, 2) stay home when possible, 3) keep 6 feet apart when among people, 4) and regularly wash your hands.

Friends, we are almost there! This is no time to throw in the towels of caution and care. Let’s faithfully help bring this yearlong pandemic to an end. And let’s continue to offer prayers and support to all who are anxious, isolated, grieving, economically hurting and suffering the ill effects of COVID-19.

Here are some important updates:

1. The Wisconsin Department of Health and the Wisconsin Council of Churches continue to guide us in terms of knowing when the time is right for returning to in-person worship gatherings:

- When vaccination rates are 50% or higher (to date 18% have received at least one dose)
- When cases are reduced to between 5 and 10 per 100,000 of population (currently the 7-day statewide average is 10.8 but there are several hotspot counties above 20)
- When positive tests are 10% or lower (now at 2.1% for latest 7-day average)

2. Here is very timely and important new information for people fully vaccinated, issued this morning by the Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

3. Many have inquired about clergy vaccinations. We have learned today that the State of Wisconsin Department of Health Services will be releasing guidance to clarify that all spiritual care providers, both inside and outside of hospital settings, are eligible to be vaccinated at this time. If your pastoral responsibilities would typically have you visiting the sick or entering medical settings such as hospitals and nursing homes (regardless of their current COVID restrictions), this means you should be eligible. It is recommend you bring an identifier such as a business card, ordination card or bulletin with you to demonstrate your clergy status. It may still be the case that individual agencies or appointment-takers have not gotten the word about this new guidance. Vaccine availability varies from county to county, but this should position clergy in a higher priority group.

4. One Great Hour of Sharing (OGHS) is our special Lenten offering, which extends relief and support to those who have suffered natural disasters, disease and the devastating effects of hunger, poverty, and the lack of drinking water. I urge you to make a special appeal this year, in light of the devastating effects of COVID throughout the world, and the particular needs of our sisters and brothers in Texas following severe power outages and pervasive storm related damages. The official date for this offering is this Sunday, but feel free to extend the invitation through Easter.

5. Powered by Generosity – the 2020 Wisconsin Conference UCC Annual Meeting will take place virtually during the evenings of May 11-13 and Saturday morning, May 15. A full worship service will also be available to congregations for Sunday, May 16. Look for the Official Call and registration in an email from Annual Meeting Event Planner Katie Komassa this Friday!

Grace and peace,

Franz
